Your morning Dubai city tour with its ancient and traditional Arabian culture and heritage mixed with the modern cosmopolitan lifestyle will give you a fascinating historical excursion and orientation of the city. First we pass the beautiful flamingo lagoon. Our route takes us to Nad Al Sheba - the famous camel & horse race track. We will visit the new falcon market. We drive through Jumeirah until we reach the magnificent Jumeirah Mosque, showing the beauty of Islamic architecture (the mosque can only be visited Tuesday, Thursday & Sunday at 10:00 am with a reservation). In the Bastakiya area, we stop to admire the old wind-tower houses built by wealthy merchants. Close by is the 150-years old Al Fahidi Fort, which now houses the Dubai Museum. The museum records the city's past as an important pearl diving and trading centre. We continue our journey by Abra - a local water taxi which has survived the city's modernization over the centuries and brings us the spice and gold souk.

This evening, enjoy a Dhow Dinner Cruise. Lined with dhows, the Dubai Creek offers a picturesque glimpse of Dubai's trading heritage. You will have a chance to see the traditional abras (water taxis), which provide economical transport across the Creek for local residents. Take a short camel ride, sit around the fire, dress in traditional Bedouin robes, sip the aromatic Arabic coffee or tea and try the hubbly-bubbly, henna painting and a fortune teller, experience sand surfing, or just simply laze on the pillows with a Shi Sha.

Evening, a delicious BBQ dinner will be served with Middle Eastern specialties cooked on site including chicken, lamb, Shish Kebab, hummus, tabouli and many other famous Arabic dishes.
